AUCTIONEERS NOTE: Donald had many talents. He started in photography 61 years ago, then worked at McDonnell Douglas for 42 years as a tooling superintendent. After retirement he started working on clocks. He has one of the cleanest woodworking and machinist shops you'll see. He also enjoyed collecting Wheel Horse lawn tractors. So he truly was a man with many talents. This is their lifetime collection. Everything is very neat and clean. Be sure and check out the Real Estate, it's truly a nice place with a park like setting.
