OWNERS:
LATE JUDY HECHLER
DAN & PHIL HECHLER

AUCTIONEERS NOTE: Judy was truly one of Troy's finest ladies. Her maiden name was Mozier. Her ancestors settled here from Kentucky in the 1800's. She was raised on the family dairy and egg farm just north of Troy. She married Bob Hechler. The Hechler family settled in Lincoln County after the civil war where they ran Hechler Hardware store in downtown Troy, which was opened by the Hechler ancestors in 1896, which is still in business today. Judy was a charter member of the Lincoln County Historic Society, Woman of the Year and very active supporter of downtown Troy. She always met you with that big welcome smile and never knew a stranger. She will be dearly missed, what a lady! See you at the sale. David, Dusty & Bill
(Note: We will hold the 2nd auction on site at their residence: 215 Clark Dr. Troy, MO 63379 on Saturday, April 18, 2020, selling Real Estate, antiques & household. Watch for upcoming sale bill.)
